Statement of Commitment:

The candidate named above has the support of the IFC and the institution to assist him in executing the responsibilities of his position through financial and time commitments.

The candidate named above is currently enrolled at our institution and is in good standing with his college or university, as well as his fraternity. The candidate has at least one full year of academic study remaining and does not plan to graduate prior to Spring 2019.

We understand that candidate receptions, suite parties and parties in individual rooms hosted by the candidate or his supporters can result in the candidacy being nullified. Candidates are also not allowed to produce campaign materials.

We understand the candidate must attend the mandatory Candidate meeting, Friday Morning, at the 2018 SEIFC Leadership Academy (L.A.), a summer meeting of the SEIFC Executive Board (June 22-24, 2018) and the entire 2019 SEIFC L.A. if elected. We will also bring a student delegation to the 2019 SEIFC L.A. if elected.
