

Southeastern Interfraternity Conference

SECTION C: Advisor of the Year Award Fraternity Man of the Year Award Application Materials

Please Return To:

SEIFC Awards

C/O Buck Cooke

Georgia Institute of Technology

141 Student Services Building

Atlanta, GA 30332-0285

Must be POSTMARKED by December 10, 2007, for consideration

Dr. Tom Shoemaker Advisor of the Year Award

Attach only materials requested. All other materials will not be considered part of the application.

The Dr. Tom Shoemaker Advisor of the Year Award is intended to recognize student affairs professionals who have demonstrated exceptional professional standards and achievements in fraternity advising in the southeastern region during the past year. Criteria for the nominee include: full-time service to the fraternity advisement profession through campus impact, employment in fraternity advisement on a campus in the SEIFC region at the time of nomination, and completion of this official application. Note: The SEIFC Executive Director, Associate Executive Director, and Assistant Executive Directors are not eligible for nomination during the period(s) in which they hold their positions. An advisor may only win the award once. One recipient shall be recognized annually. Graduate students or interns are ineligible for this award.

Name of Nominee: _____

Name of Institution: _____

Number of Years of Service to Fraternity Life: _____

The Nominated Advisor: (mark all that apply)

- _____ Publishes an Annual Report on IFC/fraternities for the university/college
- _____ Attends IFC meetings and IFC officer meetings
- _____ Reports at IFC meetings and IFC officer meetings
- _____ Conducts leadership training seminars at least annually for IFC officers
- _____ Attends the SEIFC Leadership Academy
- _____ Compiles total man-hours and dollars donated by the fraternity system for charities and philanthropic agencies
- _____ Complies scholarship data for the fraternity system
- _____ Assists the IFC in identifying and gaining access, where available, to support services (i.e. printing, bulk mailing, computer services, etc.)

Please attach a detailed explanation of the following criteria and how your advisor's service has contributed to your Greek community. Your attachment should not exceed three (3) double-spaced typed pages. Applications of more than three pages will not be considered.

- A. Please explain your reasons for nominating this advisor.
- B. Advisor's contributions to the campus
- C. Advisor's participation in fraternal or student affairs professional associations
- D. Advisor's regional/national presentations and/or publications
- E. Awards and honors received by advisor
- F. Other notable accomplishments

Gregory R. Singleton Fraternity Man of the Year Award

Attach only materials requested. All other materials will not be considered part of the application.

The Gregory R. Singleton Fraternity Man of the Year award will recognize an undergraduate fraternity man in the Southeast who is a role model to his peers and consistently illustrates what it means to live with integrity and by the values of his fraternity. Up to three letters of recommendation will be considered from the IFC president, Greek Advisor, chapter presidents, University personnel, chapter advisors, or other influential student leaders. One nomination per council will be considered.

Name of Nominee _____

College/University _____

Fraternity Affiliation _____ Classification _____

Major _____ GPA _____

Please type and limit each response to the space provided.

Describe his leadership ability.

How do fraternal values show through his leadership style?

How does this individual lead by example?

What can others learn from this individual about what it means to be Greek?

Describe his service to the University.

Describe his service to his fraternity.

Describe his service to the Greek community.

How is his character and ideals exemplified?